The heritage of hospitality
is an American tradition.
When friends gather in your home for a social evening, or even for a few minutes of congenial relaxation, you're proud to be able to give them the best in hospitality.

In these days of rationed foods, guests for dinner are not entertained as often as in years past. But more frequently, folks drop in to renew friendships.

You'll find the Midtown Liquor Store
well stocked with the ingredients for successful, friendly hospitality. Fine wines, quality liquors, mixers and tobaccos in your favorite brands.

EASTER

Only once before in the century has Easter come so late. The pilgrims of old, having no street lamps, depended on the full moon for lighting their ways to festivals! So astronomy leads the church in declaring the annual date for Easter.

That first Easter made the Master Christian, the son of a simple carpenter, the greatest man who ever lived. It made him the Truth-giver, whose teachings have become the basis for all law and liberty in the civilized world. It made him "the light of the world."

How well the great Nazarene knew that Truth is eternal, that it is the seed within itself, which the brutality and ignorance of men cannot kill. Knowing this, he rolled away the stone from the attempted burial of spirituality and gave to mankind the certainty of eternal Life.

In spite of all the darkness over the face of the earth this Eastertide, Truth lives on in the hearts of men. It says to those who would look down into the tomb of materiality for hope—"Truth is risen." No stone of totalitarian hatred is heavy enough to hide it long.

Christian civilization believes in the individuality of men, in the right of men to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Christian education teaches men to think for themselves. It teaches mercy, honor, uprightness. The teachings of true Christianity are neither morbid nor fanatical, but healthy, happy, and alive with practical goodness.

More than ever before in history, men and women of the Christian world are finding anew the true meaning of Easter. And though we celebrate it with swords, we can remember the words of the teacher in Galilee—"I came not to bring peace, but a sword." And we know, as he knew, that we cannot sheathe that sword until the world is safe for the happiness of men.

Mothers Club Sets April 28 For Annual Night Whist Party

Daly City whist enthusiasts are invited to attend the annual night whist of the Mothers Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school, Wednesday, April 28, 8:30 p. m. This party, which is given each year to raise funds for the school, will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Margaret Schreiber, assisted by Mrs. Mary Musante, co-chairman, at Masonic hall.

There will be a cash first prize and many other valuable awards. Price of score cards is nominal and the public is urged to attend.

Hillcrest Druids Announce Whist

Whist players of the Daly City area have been issued a personal invitation by Mrs. Victorine Lombard and Arch Druidess Miss Rosalyn Rosenberg to attend the monster whist of Hillcrest Circle No. 143, U. A. O. D., Monday evening, April 26, at Masonic hall.

The chairmen announce three cash prizes and many other valuable awards. Playing will begin at 8:45 p. m. Price of score cards is nominal.

Members of the circle will meet at 7 p. m. for a business session, preceding the public whist party.

The Druids, who have established an enviable reputation for good whists, promise that this one will be "tops".

"Yankee Doodle Dandy" Plays Here

No one's life makes so dazzling a story as that of a showman and there's no greater showman than George M. Cohan. Warner Brothers' film, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," which is currently playing at the Daly City theatre, tells the story of his exciting career. The whole glittering show-world is brought to life in the lavish production.

George M. Cohan is played by the inimitable James Cagney, who doesn't try so much to look like Cohan as he does to imitate his manner of speaking, singing and dancing. The picture starts when Jerry Cohan, portrayed by Walter Huston, breaks away from his "Irish Minstrel" act of the Fourth of July, long enough to join his wife, Nellie, played by Rosemary DeCamp, who has just given birth to a baby boy. At first they are at a loss for a name, but the doctor suggests George Washington, because it was Independence Day. But Nellie thought Washington was too long for the billboards, so they compromised on the good old Irish name, Michael.

George was only out of rompers a few years when he joined the act that barnstormed every town that was large enough to have a theatre. Sometime later, his sister Josie, portrayed by Jeanne Cagney, made her worldly debut and when she was old enough to be trained, she became known as the youngest skirt dancer in America, and the act itself gained nationwide fame as "The Four Cohans."

Some time passed and one day, while the Cohans were playing in Buffalo, Mary, played by Joan Leslie, a young girl, stage struck and eager, comes to George after the performance. He takes an interest in her and offers to help her toward her career, but later finds out that he'd rather have her become Mrs. George M. Cohan than an actress, and she agrees with him.

The picture is replete with Cohan music and grand production numbers. "Mary's A Grand Old Name," "Give My Regards To Broadway," "Over There," "You're A Grand Old Flag" and "The Yankee Doodle Boy" are just a few of the fine tunes that will bring a touch of nostalgia together with an urge to join in the singing.

"Yankee Doodle Dandy" has a superb supporting cast which includes George Tobias, as a wise-guy theatrical producer, Irene Manning, as the Gay Nineties heart-throb, Fay Templeton, Frances Langford, Eddie Foy jr., as his father, and many more.

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

"MY MOTHER THANKS YOU, my father thanks you, my sister thanks you, and I thank you." James Cagney in the role of George M. Cohan gives the curtain line that was nationally famous. Others in the cast of "Yankee Doodle Dandy," now at the Daly City theatre, are Rosemary DeCamp, Walter Huston and Jeanne Cagney.

Easter Food Guide

FOR IDEAS
TO CELEBRATE EASTER
Read this week's Julia Lee Wright
article in the Family Circle Magazine. It gives tempting ideas and recipes for an Easter dinner as well
as hints on decorating Easter eggs—1943 style. The Family Circle is out every Tuesday. Get your copy free at Safeway.

Bright beginnings for Easter Morn

Gaily colored eggs, clever little favors, small gifts and a special kind of breakfast—they're all bright beginnings for Easter morning. And Easter offers such a fine theme for entertaining family or friends, for food and decorations seem to just naturally lend themselves to such an occasion.

Even with rationings and restrictions, it's possible to plan a simple breakfast such as the one we have given here—heartily, yet delightfully festive.

FOR AN EASTER BRUNCH

Easter Sunshine Egg Nests
with Bacon, Sausage or Ham if available
Hot Cross Buns Jelly or Jam
Festive Compote
Mixed canned or fresh fruit served in sherbet glasses dessert fashion.)
With a Basket of Bunny Cookies

The Easter Sunshine Egg Nests are made of bread cases which are made-to-order-food for using unsliced bread. They can be used for creamed dishes as well as for eggs by browning the cases before filling. When you serve them, remember to tell your guests that cases and filling are eaten together.

TO MAKE EASTER SUNSHINE EGG NESTS

Trim crusts off a day-old 1½-pound pullman or large loaf of enriched white or wheat bread. Cut into 6 slices about 2 inches thick. With a sharp knife, hollow out the center of each block of bread, leaving a ½-inch wall on the sides and bottom. Dot inside of the cases with softened butter. Drop 1 or 2 eggs into each case. Season with salt and pepper and dot top with butter. Bake immediately on a cookie sheet or drip pan in a moderate oven (350° F.) 25 minutes or until eggs are set and cases browned. Serve hot on heated dishes. Serves 6. Note: These cases may be made the night before. Bake longer at lower temperature for firmer eggs.

FOR TABLE DECORATIONS

Made-to-order decorations for Easter morning may be real blossoms if you are fortunate enough to have them, or a transplanted bare twig decorated with pastel crepe paper blossoms. Use a small twig with a blossom attached on white cards for place markers. They are gay and spring-like and score another bright beginning.

DO SOMETHING WITH EGGS

And dyed or decorated egg shells have their place on the Easter table, too. Prepare by washing eggs thoroughly to remove oils adhering to the shell. Then crack small end and peel back enough of the shell to permit the egg to drop through. Wash inside immediately with cold water and shell is ready for dyes and trimmings.

RATIONING OF FOOD IS NECESSARY, BECAUSE

1. Fear of scarcity in war time leads people to buy more than they need.
2. Many people do not understand that if food is rationed, we'll all have our fair share.

Therefore, we must learn to use food wisely.

To help you with your share of the official consumer point plan, we have compiled this booklet with its provisions.

Part For Victory?

E FOLEMS SQUARELY

People willing to disregard the rights of others can shop around and accumulate goods. This war, food is needed throughout the world to feed our soldiers, sailors and airmen of other countries (as they are feeding ours) and to establish confidence in the cause of the United Nations. We will use substitutes for those that are scarce.

Our rationing, we present it out now; become fashionable.

MILLO'S MARKET DELUXE

6315 MISSION ST.

But-

Bring in your coupons and we'll give you the finest quality meat your money can buy. We're open every day from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

Please come early in the week before choice cuts are gone and the week-end crowd starts to pour in. If you come in during the first part of the week, we can help you budget your coupons so your family can have meat every day including a roast or something choice on Sunday.

May we suggest you buy your entire week's meat supply at one time if you have refrigeration. By doing so you can get better service, better value and plan better menus.

Bring in your ration stamps — we have the MEAT and SMILING SERVICE!

OFFERS YOU A COMPLETE SHOPPING CENTER

No need to run to half a dozen different shops to complete your menu plans. Milo's has a meat department, a grocery, fruit and vegetable and fish and poultry departments. Save both time and money by doing your shopping all under one roof.

Fresh fruits and vegetables will help stretch your ration points and at the same time give your family extra food values.

Milo's Grocery has completely tabulated details on the new point system. Wide selection and competitive prices make this an ideal grocery.

Fish and Poultry are more important to the average menu-planner now than ever before. Be sure you get select, fresh fish and poultry

America DRIVES to VICTORY!

BRAKES have a lot to do with premature tire wear. Faulty brake adjustment leads to irregular wear on the treads, shortens tire life—and endangers yours. Our brake service is complete and one right. Incidentally, our tire retreading service is something you ought to investigate. At low cost, now, you can double your tire mileage!
